DAILY COURIER.

THURSDAY,JULY 29, 1858. Reading Matter on every page.

The August Election. The edition of the Weekly Courier which goes press this morning, is the last that we can send our readers before the August election. We have nly in Louisville but throughout the State, the he election of Revill, but we want his majority o be handsome. We have no doubt about the election of Wood, but we want him to have a complimentary majority also. As to the local ckets throughout the State we are not prepared o speak, but, from the information we have, a large majority of the Democratic candidates in the different counties of the State will be elected.

In Louisville we have been making considerable efforts to get out the Democratic vote. But efforts in this city don't accomplish what they do in the noble Democratic ranks of the country .-Our country readers all vote without urging, but our city readers have not heretofore voted with urging. They have all promised to vote at this lection, and if they do so we shall distance the jail clique candidates and win the race. If they do not vote we shall be beaten, and if such is the fact we intend to tell the Democrats in this city very plainly what we think of them. We deem it unnecessary to urge upon our friends in the country to vote. The noble Democracy who till the soil and constitute the bone and sinew of our country, need no urging. They know their rights and they are not afraid to exerise them. They know their duty and they will erform it. They will not suffer their voice to be ushed in the choice of their rulers, but they will the largest assortment of recomes and the disasses of the count in the city, with extremes of refraction for the prespyopic eye of from 1 to 72 inches, and the same valety of Pebbles or Glasses for the near-sighted or myopic know that a majority legally rules in this country, go to the polls and designate the men. They and that those who do not vote at all virtually concede to men whom they despise, the right to Let every voter go to the polls on Monday and ote. Let the majority for Revill be such in the State as to rebuke the amalgamation of the Know Nothing leaders with the Black Republicans. The Louisville Journal has gone over to the Black Republicans, and its Yankee editor is doing all he can to take the Know Nothing party with him .-Let this effort be rebuked at once by the overwhelming voice of pro-slavery Democrats and We have no use for Black Republi eans in Kentucky, nor have we any use for men who sympathise with Abolitionists. Let the vote next Monday be large enough and decisive enough in favor of Revill to make Black Republicans see at once that they can have no foot hold fact. Indeed, Col. Duncan, in his card, does not in Kentucky.

Council Clerks' Black Mail. The Journal, of yesterday, barely alludes to the above topic, without one word of justification or alliation, and then skips off to Washington. In truth, the subject admits of none. These clerks ook their office in 1851, when the city government was first organized under the new charter, for a salary of $200. Every necessary duty of their office then had to be discharged, of course, and any addition of duty is simply a pretext to give away the public money. In 1856, all the duties, the pretext duties included, of these clerks were fixed by ordinance. All they now perform were performed then under that ordinance. The salary of each clerk was then fixed at $850, and they got fees for copies of not less than $150 per annum, making the value of their offices $1,000 a year for In 1857, an outrageous and illegal black mail of one dollar was levied for their benefit on every tavern and coffee house in the city, of which there are not less than 400, and another of twenty-five cents on every vehicle, of which there are over 2,000. Thus $200 was added to the value of each office by this outrage upon the keepers of ouisville; John Cannavan, Esq., Memphis; Col. Alton taverns and coffee houses, and $250 by that on the owners of vehicles. Their salaries and perquitent with this, the council increased their salaries $1,750 per annum, when the first incumbents, one of whom is now a candidate for clerk of the city court, were glad to get the office in 1851 at a salary of $200.

This matter defies any proper explanation. But here is a noteworthy circumstance connected with In 1856, one of these council clerks, now a candidate for clerk of the city court, was an aspiant for the Know Nothing nomination for clerk of the chancery court. He failed to get that nomination. After that, the black mail was levied on taverns, coffee houses, and vehicles, and he was a recipient of its benefit until he resigned his place of council clerk, to become the clique's candidate for clerk of the city court. Moreover, the salaries of the council clerks were increased from $850 to 1,150, and this candidate got that increase also. ample of the rest. All our city affairs are locked up in the hands of the clique. No Auditor's Re-

We tell you, fellow-citizens, that this is but a ort has been published for this year, and none will be, till the election is over. You know not

We believe that every good citizen of all parties desires that all, who by law are entitled to vote, may be allowed peaceably to exercise their right. Some deny the expediency and the propriety of the laws under which any such right is conferred, and call for modification or repeal; but even these respect the right which has been granted under hose laws, and unite in desiring that it may be peaceably exercised. All rights in a state of social existence, if not the creatures of aw, are at least sustained and upheld by it. To nterfere with any man's lawful right to vote, is to strike at all rights, by breaking down the law which is the foundation of all. In our govern nent, this is more emphatically so as to the right of suffrage than any other. If that is not allowed, the laws at once become the edicts of tyrants -for those who are so placed in authority are tyrants. Republicanism has then ceased, and better that its forms should be prostituted to imperial than anarchical sway.

Regarding these sacred principles as the pillars which sustain our political structure, our legislature has sought to hedge them in by every safeguard and sanction of law. -Long ago a law was passed to divide the officers of election, so that each of the political parties of the State might be fairly and equally represented. The Revised Statutes contained no such provision, but the last legislature passed a similar law, and now men go to the polls with an assurance that, when they get there, their rights will not be judged by opponents alone-and by opponents often the tools peaceably to the polls. The law has divided the officers of election so that justice will be done to all parties and persons. Let none fear the contrary. Naturalized voters must produce their certificates of naturalization, unless their "qualification is known to one of the judges or the sheriff." See Revised Statutes, p. 286. County Court Jury Fund.

We made no charge against Mr. Thruston, the county clerk, in reference to this fund. We called for an expose, and one was given, but not so explicit as was wished. In a second card, Mr. Thruston satisfactorily explains why he had received $194, when more seemed due. We repeat that this point is satisfactorily explained in Mr. Thruston's second card. But still he fails to say when it was paid over to the trustee of the circuit it was paid. As to the fines in the county court, Mr. Thruston says he has not received one dollar, on that account. Why? The records of that court show that fines have been imposed, and when collected, they are to be paid to the clerk. JOHN FLECK,

Have any executions been issued on those fines?

If not, why? They are part and parcel of the

The dirtiness and littleness of Plug Uglyism was never more manifestly exhibited than in the race for the county judgeship of Oldham. Even tion of Crittenden, Marshall, and Underwood, the organ here had to interfere in the contest, and as usual, was not content without slandering and defaming the Democratic candidate. Wherever they have the power the Plug Uglies rule with an iron hand. They show no mercy, and do not even grant justice to their opponents. But where they are again and again urged upon the Democracy, not in the minority and seeking to obtain power, they find it quite convenient to raise the hypocritical mportance of a full and fair vote. We doubt not cry of "no party!" Thus it is in Oldham. They are begging votes for their candidate for county judge because he is a "no party" man. Pretty fellows! But this dodge won't avail them this time. The Democracy see through the flimsy trick, and every man will stand true to his colors, and fight bravely for Capt. John Rodman, their candidate. He is known to every person in the county. All know him to be a good and true man and eminently well qualified for the position. His bitterest political opponent will concede his entire competency for the office. He will, beyond all > young man who was knocked down Third street, on Saturday night, immediately after declaring that, if he had a vote he would vote for the American ticket, says that he does not know that the man who knocked him down was a Democrat. But of course there can be little or no doubt about that .- Lou. Journal. The above from the Journal of vesterday, is intended as a correction of that paper's misstatements of the previous day with regard to John Collett. We published the facts, in this case, yesterday. It is a shame for any newspaper thus to misrepresent and drag before the public a clever, modest and gentlemanly young man who harms no one and seeks not notoriety. If any thing was to be said of the cowardly assault upon him, the truth ought to have been told, and then the matter should have rested. A cowardly villain sneaked up behind Collett and struck him, but there is no rule them, just as effectually as if they voted for evidence at all of the blow being given by a Democrat. Collett does not say that he believes a Dem. ocrat gave the blow, and certainly his suspicions ought to have more weight than the unwarranted assertions or inferences of an editor who has thus dragged a clever, a peaceful and respectable ang gentlemen before the public for nothing but partizan purposes. Mr. Collett and his relations and friends have a right to be offended at his thus being used to make political capital for the jail clique.

The gentleman who sent us that "secret circular" from Hardin county, assures us that it is a genuine document, and has furnished us such evidence as entirely convinces us that such is the deny that he wrote it. It is probably some of the old stock left over, and some of the brethren thinking it peculiarly suited for the emergency, circulated them pretty freely, in the hope of helping Maxwell, the Know Nothing candidate for District Attorney, who is busy rallying his party, while he is sailing under false colors and endeavoring to obtain Democratic votes by declaring he is a "no-party" candidate. Any Democrat who can be caught in such a trap deserves to live under Plug Ugly rule the balance of his days. Democratic Meeting. The Democratic Association of the First and Second Wards have appointed a meeting for to night on the corner of Madison and Shelby streets. Col. Thomas H. Holt and other speakers will address the meeting. Let the Democracy turn out as they did night before last, in the Eighth Ward. A rousing meeting, good speeches, and an orderly proceeding are what we want. The Democracy are doing things up right, and if they will so continue till next Monday, they will comwith the votes of most of them. Col Humphrey Marshall our noble tive, was announced to speak. Before his arrival the meeting was addressed by Judge Johnston and Robert F. Baird, Esq., who gave way upon the arrival of Col. Marshall.—Lou. Jour.

mand the respect of all good citizens, together

The next announcement made by the organ for Col. Marshall should alow a few hours' grace .-Humphrey, like other huge bodies, moves slowly. It was right for Johnston and Baird to give way when the Col. arrived. There was not room on the stand for any one but the Colonel. He swelled the crowd at least one half when he added his body to that of the assembly.

OUTRAGEOUS AND HEINOUS MURDER .- A most iendish murder was committed in Gallatin county. Ill., on Thursday last, the 23d inst., four miles west of New Haven, on the person of a widow ady and her son, named Eliza C. and William Marshall. They were murdered in their house, about 8 or 9 o'clock at night, and the inhuman wretches, after perpetrating the deed and robbing the house of everything valuable they could lay their hands on, fired the house and burnt the bodies of the unfortunate victims to cinders.

It was supposed that there was considerable money in the house, which was no doubt the cause of the murder. A coroner's inquest was held over the charred remains of the unfortunate widow and her son, on Friday, the 23d, and the verdict of the jury was that the deceased came to their deaths by violence, by some person or persons to the jury mitting the deed had set fire to the house. It is to be hoped that the devils incarnate who committed this heinous outrage may yet be found ut, and punished to the utmost extent of the State pride is a common and noble feeling; and a reasonable deegree of this sentiment is to be cound among the citizens of all the States; but it does occur to as, that the fact of being citizens of Texas, furnishes great grounds for us to feliciate ourselves. We have 70,000,000 acres of land wned by individuals, worth at low figures $140 .-000,000. We have 100,000,000, acres of public domain. We have about 140 organized counties, and territory for near 140 more. Each counties, and territory for near 140 more. ties, and territory for hear 140 more. Each county contains 900 square miles, and in many instances, double that amount. We have a special School Fund of $3,000,000. Added to this each county has 4 leagues of land, or 17,765 acres, which at an average of $5 per aere, is $53,256, and counting 140 counties, is $7,445,840. We have in embryo, a State University with an endowment fund exceeding anything of the kind in the Union.

Our railroad enterprises are progressing with a rapidity that confidently promises the completion of at least 100 miles per annum of finished road, which in ten years will give us as many miles of finished railroad as Georgia, and in ten additional ears we will far outstrip any of our Southern

These facts, together with the additional one, that we are clear of all debt, presents a condition of affairs that must challenge the attention of the Union, and make every citizen of Texas feel proud of his State.—Columbia Democrat.

Jealousy and Attempt to Kill. Jealousy and Attempt to Kill.

For several months past, an Irishman named James Martin has been paying his attentions to a female domestic at the City Hotel by the name of Mary Sheriden. Everything went along smoothly with the lovers until Saturday last, when the woman ascertained that her gallant was a deceiver, and had got a wife and seven children abroad.—This aroused her passion, and she was determined and had got a wife and seven children abroad.—
This aroused her passion, and she was determined to be avenged for the wrongs she had sustained, both to her feelings and character. She hailed Martin, as he passed by the City Hotel yesterday forenoon, and beckoned him from a chamber window to come up. He did so, and was met by Mary at the head of the stairs and invited into one of the stairs and invited into one of the stairs and invited into the stairs and invited into the stairs and invited into the second of the s the head of the stairs and invited into one of the rooms occupied by the porters. He had not been long there, when Mary approached him and prevailed upon him to looseen his neck handkerchief, which she thought fitted too close about the neck for such a warm day. The neck-tie was loosened, and Mary quickly drew a razor across the throat of Martin, inflicting a wound some three or four inches long. The wound was not deep enough to take life, and Martin soon decamped in search of a surgeon. He applied to Dr. Ellsworth to dress the wound, which was done.

Officers Sanderson and Goodrich arrested Mary yesterday afternoon and conveyed her to jail.—She admitted giving Martin the wound.—Hortford Courant.

MORE OF "CAUSE AND EFFECT!"

Making a Demonstration on Kentucky!

READ! KENTUCKIANS, READ!!

There are many good men who, more from old prejudices than any other cause, are still acting against the Democcatic party-the only truly national party now in existence, and the only party that can possibly resist the aggressions of the Black Republicans of the North, led on by Seward, Giddings, Burlingame, etc. These men are reluctant to believe that such is the true state of the ease, but if the mass of evidence we have already placed before them has not been sufficient to con vince their better judgment, we will now furnish them with facts they can not resist:

We will, then, first ask the earnest and serious attention of every Kentuckian, into whose hands this paper may fall, to the following address which has just been made public by the "Southern Aid Society of Cincinnati," an Abolition organization. It is an earnest appeal to the Abolitionists of the North to contribute their means to make this a free State. Kentucky, they say, "must be free." Their demonstration is a bold and an open one and it now rests with the honest yeomanry of the State to say whether or not the enterprise shall be nipped in the bud. They have it in their power to give this decision at the polls on Monday next .-But we will not detain the reader longer from the ocument of the Abolition philanthropists. Here om "The Southern Aid Society," of Cincinnat Kentucky must befree. How shall it be brought about? It can easily be done, with the co-operation and aid of the opponents of slavery in the free States. In Kentucky, as also in a number of the slave States, (yea, all) they need light. The masses are non-slaveholders, but they are in the dight. They are (many of them) also prejudiced. They are (many of them) also prejudice againt Abolition, because they do not understand t. The documents have not been circulated there is among us. Now, how shall they obtain the ight? As a general thing they are poor, and not able to sustain lecturers, or buy books and tracts; and until their eyes are opened they will not have the disposition to take hold of this work. WHAT IS NEEDED?

1. Suitable tracts and documents, adapted es 1. Suitable tracts and documents, adapted especially to the wants of slave States. A number of such tracts are already published by the A. R. T. and B. Society, but there is needed another, giving the "gist and marrow" of Helper's book, demonstrating the financial argument in a compass that will bring it within the reach of the poorest. Who will prepare such tract or tracts, ay of 24 to 36 pages? Tracts treating on the noral view of the subject can be obtained, but these arguments fail to reach the hearts of thou sands—therefore, let both be applied.

2. Money is needed to secure the circulation of these tracts among the masses in slave States. Slaveholders will not contribute. The haters of slavery in the North must supply the "material in this respect. And how easy it can be done Are there not numbers who can appropriate to this object $1,000? Many who could give $100?—More $50? Thousands who could contribute $10. And tens of thousands who would love to give $1 each to help on this glorious triumph?

Only let the heart become thoroughly enlisted and it would be done sooner than we could talk about it. There is money enough. Let it beoperly appropriated and the work is done.

WHAT IS THE MONEY NEEDED FOR? To aid those noble brethren and sisters who ar struggling against the corruptions and darkness in slave States—and to aid ministers who are faithful and will preach a full gospel—to aid colpor-teurs who will circulate such documents as are necessary—to buy the needful books and tracts— to encourage school teachers of the right kind, that the rising generation may be properly trained to aid those pious youth in slave States who hate slavery, and will fight against it, to qualify themselves for teachers. Such there are, and they need help now—and money could not be expended Now let all this be done, and Kentucky and Missouri will be FREE in a short time. And should they come out, the whole fabric of American

We are assured by a native of Kentucky, who as long and earnestly labored against slavery, and is yet battling on undaunted, (but well nighterushed for want of help.) that if he can be supplied with the documente, and the means, the WILL FIND THE MEN IN KENTUCKY to circulate them thoroughly through the State. And we are also assured that such a movement would be received with favor by ory is within our power—a victory for God and humanity! And if so, then who will not say the means shall be supplied! Will not all say to those brethren "Go on? We will stand by you, nd the Lord give success."

Friends of the slave, and of human liberty universal, this thing can be done. The crushed ones in the South look to us for help; and the voice of Providence plainly says:

"Friends of freedom rouse, Rouse to victory.

We earnestly suggest that organizations be formed all over our land—State, county and township—associations to raise funds for this purpose. Such a Society has been formed in Cincinnati, and we invite the cordial and vigorous co opera-tion of the friends of right throughout the land. Friends, consult and move without delay. But until such systematic organization can be brought about, funds to any amount can be safely sent to brother John G. Fee, Berea, Madison county, Ky.; or to Lewis Tappan, 48 Beekman street, New York; or to Levi Coffin, corner of Broadway and Franklin streets, Cincinnati, Ohio, with the as-urance that money so contributed will be faithlly appropriated to this object.

Wait not, friends, but as individuals act, for elp is needed speedily-urgently needed now. P. S. All papers friendly to the cause, please GEO. THOMPSON, LEVI COFFIN,

For the "Southern Aid Society" of Cincinnati. The development of cause and effect is clearly emonstrated by this document. These Abolition fanatics, who wish to take the control of our domestic affairs out of our hands and transfer it to their own tender keeping, are encouraged in their undertaking by the course pursued by Messrs. Crittenden, Marshall, and Underwood .-Indeed, we doubt not there is a private understanding between these gentlemen and the "Cincinnati Aid Society." Crittenden, Marshall, and Giddings embraced each other and shed tears together. They caucussed together, voted together, and went to the extremest lengths required by Abolitiondom. It was at Cincinnati that the first mpetus was given to the movement that was to make Crittenden President. Since their return home Crittenden and Marshall have been making public speeches in which they bitterly denounce the Administration, because, in spite of Abolition clamor, it boldly stood up for the rights of the South, and defended their own alliance with the Black Republicans. With such facts staring them in the face, can intelligent men be astonished at the boldness of the efforts now manifested by the Abolitionists to make Kentucky a free State?-Could effect more surely follow cause?

But the Cincinnati Aid Society is not alone at work in the effort to abolitionise Kentucky. During the last few weeks thousands on thousands of Abolition documents have been scattered throughout the State. The mails have been fairly loaded down with them. They are mostly under the frank of WM. H. SEWARD, and contain vindications of the Black Republicans and Crittenden & Co., in their course on the Kansas question. One of them now before us was addressed to a citzen of Oldham county, and in it is an appeal to the Black Republicans to be energetic in distributing their documents. It is headed "prepare for the fall elections!" and it urges their friends "to flood every Congressional District, and especially districts now represented by Democrats, with these speeches and documents." So far as Kentucky is concerned, this order has been faithfully performed. The State has literally been "flooded" with these Abolition documents—with what effect let the election next Monday tell! Our cotemporary of the Lexington Statesman very truthfully and clearly presents in the following article the questions that will then be decided. He says:

The contest in Kentucky is not between the Democratic and American parties; and the advocates of the latter do not claim any such issue. The struggle here is as closely and as directly be tween the national democracy and the allied opposition, as it will be in 1860. The advocates of free labor and emancipation already boast that the Republican party has gained earnest sympathy in such border States as Kentucky, and are now confidently predicting that ere long it will have here a firm foot hold. Mr. Seward predicts these results in the great speech wherein he foreshadowed the contest of 1860. The American organization is acknowledged to be disintegrated, and utterly crushand clearly presents in the following article the questions that will then be decided. He says:

ent in our State and run back the enemy of institutions to the sectional limits of the North, d maintain our integrity to the South and there in to the Union, or shall we, by a manifestation of sympathy with the enemies of our institutious, sever our connection with the sister States of the South and aid in giving our foes a foothold upon The approaching election in Kentucky is watched with great interest by the Republicans of the North, and its result awaited with much anxiety.

The defeat of the Democratic party or its meager success will be hailed with shouts of abolition exultation from Maine to Minnesota, and will do nore to organize, inspire, and unite our enemies or the battle of 1860 than any event which could sppen in a Southern State. The election of Revill by an overwhelming majority will be taken as rebuke from the people of Kentucky to those of their representatives who have affiliated with the Recans, and will proclaim to the abolition leadrs that however potent their organization at the orth, it excites no sympathy in the popular heart the South and can gain no foothold in Kentucky. of the South and can gain no foothold in Kentucky. Mr. McKee approves of the course of Crittenden, Marshall, and Underwood, and every vots for him is an indorsement of the coalition of those men with Seward, Giddings, Burlingame and others of that school, while Revill stands with the President, sustained by an almost unanimous South; and a vote for him will be a condemnation of all affiliation with Abolitionists for any purpose whatever. Men who can indorse the coalition, and who can approve the course of those men who, united with Abolitionists upon a question of slavery for the purlitionists upon a question of slavery for the purose of defeating the Democracy ought and wil ote for McKee. But let no man who stands with South, who abhors abolitionism and professes to be opposed to its aggressive measures, think he can avow such sentiments and consistently vote for McKee. The personal qualifications and merits of these candidates have been and should be subordinated to the great principles of which they are the exponents, and the election of one or the other will have an effect which will be felt in the next national contest.

Less than one week must now elapse before this nportant issue will have been tried. We trust the short remaining time will be employed by our friends in all proper effort to arouse the attention expression of opinion. Every vote for Revill wil well the verdict of condemnation to be on those who have betrayed us, and he who at the a crisis is direlect in his duty, is no friend o his party and no true son of the South. Ken tucky has been placed by a minority of her representatives in a position of doubt on the slavery question, and it is for the people, the true sover-eigns of the soil, to wipe the stain from the fair escutcheon of our State. Let a voice rise from he plains, and gathering strength from the moun tains, proclaim to the Union that Kentucky ha o sympathy with sectionalism, and cannot be swayed by party leaders. Let every Democrat and slaveholder lend his voice to the proclama-

City Attorney.

We published an article in our yesterday's paper reflecting upon Robert J. Elliott, for his supposed conduct on the trial of the habeas corpus in the case of Jeffries and Victor. We give below a communication from a reliable source, which gives another showing of the matter. We are not at present advised of any fact which impugns the statement below. It is simply justice to Mr. Eliott to withdraw, as we do, our censure against him, unless other facts can be adduced against him. We wish to hear from Judge Muir what he has to say as to the truth of the facts we publish. We will not knowingly censure the innocent, but we certainly shall censure the party in fault-for deep fault there is somewhere. In the Courier of yesterday were statements oncerning Robert J. Elliott, our city attorney, a relation to his conduct upon the trial before udge Muir, of the writ of habeas corpus, in behalf f Jeffries and Victor, who were under arrest or charge of killing Allen, which, if true, lace Mr. Elliott in no enviable position. I the statement, the substance of which i effries and Victor "had been brought before get evidence;" that "that court then remande nem to prison till Monday, to allow time to col-ct evidence;" and that on the trial of the writ fore Judge Muir, "Mr. Elliott knew what had een done in his court, and yet he made no men-ion of it; so, that, in no way did the facts come efore Judge Muir." It was further stated, "We do not blame Judge Muir; but W. K. Thomas and Robert J. Elliott are deeply censurable.— "With them rests the dark wrong of having caused these men to be discharged by Judge Muir, gether unwarrantable, and there is no fact or circumstance showing, or in the slightest degree raising, the suspicion that he acted at all impro-perly. So far from Mr. E. having concealed any-this purpose to have the parties released without a full and fair hearing.

The parties were not, in fact, brought into court into a trial of the case, did not have the par-ties brought into court, but informed Judge John-ston, in open court, of the arrest, and asked that he might be allowed to defer the examination till wealth-this was granted-no order was made by weath—this was granted—no order was made by the court, and the prisoners remained in jail un-der the arrest by the police.

In the afternoon, of the same day, Mr. Elliott was called upon, at his residence by one of the police, Jas. Kirkpatrick, with an order (verbal) from Judge Muir to appear before him, forthwith, at the court house to attend the writ of balance at the court house, to attend the writ of habeau that this writ had issued or would be applied for consequently the following statement in the Lou-isville Journal, of the 27th inst., is untrue, viz: that "he (Judge Muir) was applied to at first by the friends of the parties to issue a writ of habous corpus, but declined doing so unless the city at torney should declare himself ready for an examnation of the case. This having been complied with the writ was issued." It is, at least, untrue that Mr. Elliott announced to Judge Muir, or any one else, that he was ready for an examination on the part of the Common-wealth. So far from making such declaration he weath. So lar from making such declaration he had but two or three hours previously announced, in open court, before Judge Johnston, that he was not ready, and claimed a delay of the examination till the following Monday, which was granted. Under the belief that the case would not be noticed till the following Monday, Mr. Elliott left court and went home, where he was when Kirktottick was sent for him by Judge Mur. When he was sent for him by Judge Mur. When the sent first transfer of the sent sent for the sent sent for the sent first transfer of the sent patrick was sent for him by Judge Muir. When he appeared in court, before Judge M., he acquainted the court fully with his peculiar fosition, his entire dea where any testimony against the prisoner could be procured; that there had been no exami-nation of the case before the city court; that an the next Monday; but that since the adjournment of the city court a coroner's jury had returned a verdict, as he learned, to the effect that Allen came to his death by a wound from a knife in the hands of some one unknown. Mr. Elliot also applied in court to persons for information about the case, but could hear of no witnesses. He was then told that one of the coroner's jury was in court, who was pointed out, and Mr. E liott asked the indulgence of the court while he might converse with the juror; and, after the conversation, stated pub-liely to the court, and in the presence of the juror, (calling the attention of the juror to the state-ment) that, from the statements of the juror, there were a number of witnesses examined be-fore the coroner's jury, and there was nothing before the jury to implicate either of the parties.

Judge Muir then replied that he could not see why he should not discharge the parties, and accordingly ordered their release.

Whatever may be said of the conduct of others.

[Correspondence of the Louisville Courier.] LETTER FROM LEXINGTON.

McKee's Speech on Saturday Night—Cheerless Reception—The Rix Rux on the Courier. LEXINGTON KY., July 26.

Editors Louisville Courier:- The old adage, that 'drowning men will catch at 'straws," was verified by the action of the K. N.'s of this place, in bringing their standard bearer here to speak again. They had tried every other conceivable method of rousing their party, and of creating enthusiasm, out everything had failed, and as a dernier resort, they sent for the Apostle to come up from Cynthima, in the vain hope that his "spirit-stirring eloence," would provoke their little band to lively exertion. But in this instance, despair had perverted their judgment, for they could not possibly have procured anything less likely to effect their

Well, he came, and a few of the stout-hearted mong the party, with a good many Democrats, collected at the court house, after the bell had rung the second time. The court house was not unpleasantly full, and though the crowd around the doors might lead a passer-by to suppose so, there were good seats still unoccupied. The gallery had a dozen or so in it.

The same eloquent and effective (?) speech that has been delivered with "slight variations" in ninety-five counties in this State, was spoken.—He pitched into the national administration and to the last Levislature, as usual: said the Democratical control of the control to the last Legislature, as usual; said the Democ acy of this day was not the Democracy of Jefferson; modern Democrats, poor simple-minded crea-tures professes to believe in a platform, the very first part of which they, nor any one else under-stood. He had asked, in "ninety-five counties," prominent Democrats to explain the meaning of the platform adopted on 8th of January, that is the latter part of the passage which reaffirms the principles set forth by the Cincinnati convention— but none of them could do it, and yet Democrats blindly adopted that platform as their political creed.

Creed.

I have seldom attended as cold and lifeless a meeting, as that of last Saturday night. McKee had evidently anticipated a warm, enthusiastic reception; he was wofully disappointed, and vinced it in his manner. In his speech, Mr. McKee took occasion to re flect severely on the course pursued by the Courier toward him. All the other papers in the State, he said, had grown weary of reiterating the false charge against him in connection with the school question, except the Courser. He misconstrued your motives, and his language was just such as you would expect from a man in the desperate condition in which the Rix Rax finds himself. His speech was unworthy of a person seeking the hon-norable and responsible office he aspires to.

The Democracy are in excellent spirits, and entertain strong hopes of being able to elect a good portion of their ticket even in this county.

KENTUCKY. [Reported for the Louisville Courier.] POLICE COURT.

GEO. W. JOHNSTON, JUDGE. WEDTESDAY, July 28.
Boy Charged with Stealing.—Adolphus Kincaid, a small boy, who is neglected by his father, and permitted to run the streets, was presented for stealing $25 worth of books from the dwelling of Mr. Winter down town. The boy had been hired to put in coal, and the window curtains of the room bore finger marks of some one who had been handling coal. On being caught he said one or the other of the Snyder boys had taken the books, but afterwards told a dozen other tales about the books, not one of which was true. He was committed to the custody of the work house keeper until he can be bound out.

More New Citizens,—The court busied itself this morning making more citizens out of foreign born, and, singular as it may appear, the most of these were brought in and vouched for by Know Nothings—for voting purposes, of course. DISORDERLY CONDUCT—A CONCEALED WEAPON.—

DISORDERLY CONDUCT.-Wm. Langdon was presented on the charge of disorderly conduct, and watchman Gallagher called on to prove it. He testified that about 11 o'clock a large crowd came out of Walker's and went up Market, yelling louder and more of it than he ever heard before. He then arrested accused and handed him to Bailey. The crowd then came back, and tried, or threatened, to take the man away. He, the witness, jumped before the crowd and swore he would shoot the first one who advanced. Then he says shots were fired back at him, but no one was hit The witness, on being cross questioned, said the party were shouting for the candidates, but were the parties shooting, and he took the accused.— Then the crowd came back, and something was said that he should not be arrested. This witness said that Gallagher threatened the crowd with ties had done nothing but halloo, or shout for the candidates. The accused, when in arrest, said he had a right to shout for whom he pleased, and didn't think they had any right to be knocked and

Winston testified that he and Bailey were the first to reach the crowd, and they arrested the ac-cused. After that Gallagher came up. The wit-ness said the parties were hallooing for the candi-dates. This was all the testimony for the Comwitness. He testified to being on the street and hearing a crowd shouting, first, one for Bill Thomas, and then others for Batman and Joyes. Jus as, and when others for batman and Joyes. Just then he saw three men—the watch—run up and grab some one in the crowd, and heard one say. "I'll take you, G-d d—n you, or die." The answer was, "What have I done?" and soon after that ten or twenty wild shots were fired, at least half of which came from the side of the police, about six pops in rapid succession. All the dis-turbance the witness heard was hallooing for the candidates, the first voice on one side of the street shouting "hurrah for Thomas," which was answered by the others shouting "hurrah for Bat-man and Joyes." Then the watch ran up and ar-rested the accused. The crowd going up street was scattered along, some of them being more than a square apart; the man in arrest was stragthan a square apart; the man in arrest was straggling behind.

On being asked the question, Gallagher stated that the stone, or bowlder, hit him on the right leg somewhere, but it did not hurt him.

Henry Diven testified that he heard a rock going along the pavement. He said Gallagher fired, and he heard five or six other shots, the parties being some twenty yards off. He heard the parties hallooing for the candidates. The accused had no weapon whatever upon him.

Bardstown, July 30. Elizabethtown, July 31. Democratic Meeting There will be a meeting of the Democracy at the corner of Fifth and Water streets, this evening. at 8 o'clock. Hon, John Joves, Wm. E. Ellis and others will speak. First and Second Ward Democratic Meeting.

Hon. William Preston and Col. Thomas H. Holt will address the Democracy at the lower end of the Preston Street Market House, next Friday night, at 8 o'clock. Let the Democrats of the shot. apper wards properly advertise this meeting, so that as many as possible may be present. The Democracy from the lower wards will meet their brethren of the upper, and on this occasion exchange good, old-fashioned greetings.

The Journal, the Democrats, and the Police ion article. It was headed—"A gross outrage nurderous assault upon the police." One would have thought from the heading that half the watchmen in the city had been slaughtered; but all that happened in the way of damage to the police, according to the Journal's own account, was the rolling of a boulder against the shin of one of them. The whole article in the Journal for the occasion, and manufactured into jail clique

The facts in the case were about these: A number of Democrats returned from the meeting at the corner of Twelfth and Main streets, on Tuesday night. They reached Third street, and were passing on up Market toward their home. When hey reached Second street, some persons on the opposite side of Market street, among whom ere Dick Richardson and Bob Reed, velled out "Hurrah for Thomas." The Democrats inswered by crying "Hurrah for Batman."-These salutations were exchanged until some of the police, among whom were Galla gher and Bailey, came up. They arrested a man named Wm. Langdon, whom they told they would take or die. The friends of Langdon joined him in expostulating, and thereupon Gallagher and commenced firing their pistols upon the crowd. According to their own account, these two watchmen fired nearly if not quite as many shots as they proved to have been fired. The Democrats permitted Langdon to go to jail, saying that they would bail him out in the morning

Now, the question naturally enough arises, why did not these watchmen begin their arrests on the other side of the street? The hallooing for Thomas began on the other side of the street, and the yelling for Batman was mere response. The watchmen should therefore have begun at the beginning instead of the end. The noise made by the Democrats was no more a disturbance of the peace than that made by the Know Nothings.

Now, it seems to us that the police of this city are very fond of arresting Democrats, and that they are decidedly opposed to arresting jail clique Know Nothings. Thomas G. Brown and his brother, and William Coles, were beaten last Friday night by jail clique bullies, but no one was arrested. Thomas Allen was killed, and his murderers are yet at large These crimes were committed by persons who were at the Journal's jail clique meeting on the corner of Twelfth and Main streets, last Friday night. These were not offences sufficient to make the police see the importance of arrests; but they arrested Democrats for crying "Hurrah for Batman." They did not only make arrests for this hallooing, but they tried to kill those who yelled out for Batman.

We think the police would do as well to arrest ome few of their partisans who are amenable to the law. They should turn their especial attention to the murderers of Allen and the beaters of the Browns and Coles. They should arrest Wm. Badgett, Charles Genett, Sam. McHugh, Joseph Harmon, Jerome McKay and Peter Edwards, for each one of whom we understand that capiases whose arrest would reflect more credit upon the police than the arrests that they are daily making. They are making a farce of law by adulterating it with vile politics.

All of our police are not such partizans as these things indicate. There are a few exceptions, and we are glad of it. It is a shame to have partizan police officers. The watchmen, whom we pay from thirty to forty thousand dollars per year to guard the life and the property of our citizens, should act towards Demo crats as they do toward Know Nothings. They should know no party predilections in the discharge of their duty. The police have entirely too much to do with in the city. They go from house to house and from ward to ward with persuasion and bribery in one hand, and fraud and terror in the other. Some of them have been heard to say that no candidate whom they opposed could be elected. Indeed. without such guardians of peace, while there eems to be no hope of such a state of things with them. We hope that such things may not al. ways be so, but they are so at this time, certain. gin it, is for all good citizens, of whatever party, the jail clique candidates. New Orleans, July 24.—By the arrival at this port to-day of the steamer General Rusk, Captain Smith, from Brazos Santiago, the Picayune has received advices from Northern Mexico to the odication of Gen. Zuloaga, and flight from the & city of Mexico, leaving the government in the hands of Canto and two Bishops. Col. Zuazua had marched upon the town of San Louis Potosi, and captured it after a feeble resistance. A considerable number of prisoners were also taken. Col. Zuazua is one of the chiefs of the

A FORTUNE BURNED .- The Vienna correspond ent of the London Times relates the following cu rious incident in a recent letter:

A few days ago, a Baron Bilberstein died her and after his death no money was found in the house, although he had always passed off for a wealthy man. Inquiries were made by his heir, and, on its being discovered that a banker had paid into his hands the sum of 170,000fl but a few days before his death, his valet was arrested by the police on suspicion of having made away with the money. As the man said that his master left his bed a couple of days before he died in order to burn some papers, the stove in the bed-room was searched. Nothing but the remains of documents were found, and the servant was kept in custody until it occurred to some one that it might be as well to examine the other stoves. The examina-tion was made, and the numerous remains of bank notes of 1,000ff each, proved the innocence of the valet and the destructiveness of his master.

The Baron, who was divorced from his wife, of-ten expressed doubts about the legitimacy of his only son, and, in order that he should profit as little as possible by his death, he burned bank notes of the value of 162,000fl (£16,200.) When the door of the stove was open, the word "thousand" was distinctly right. was distinctly visible on many of the consu notes, which of course fell to pieces when touched

Herald has the following:

Our London correspondent, in a letter which we print elsewhere, explodes Barnum's last enter-prise, which had already received the coup de grace on this side of the water. It appears not that Barnum had no authority to use the name of Mr. Lumley; that the director of her Majesty Theater never answered the letters written to t crossed the Atlantic this season.

The whole matter, it seems, was a dodge of Barnum's to keep his name before the public, an he succeeded in humbugging the shrewd director of the Academy, impresario Ullman, and also se cures notices, good or bad, from nearly every journal of consequence throughout the country
This is Barnum's last and most impudent hoax.
When he brought out Joice Heth, the mermaid and the wooly horse, he had some foundation for his operations—that is, he had an old negress, ar artificial mermaid, and a horse; but in the present effect he med his hear out of whole cloth sent affair he made his hoax out of whole cloth with nothing but a superstitious sum of money-seventy-five thousand dollars in bank—to sustain it. A man who descends to such shifts to obtain a little notoriety must be hard pushed indeed.— We are afraid that the Chevalier Barnum is o

The Hartford Free Press gives the following synopsis of a case which occurred at Bristol

"A man, calling himself Smith, went to bed and wanted his bed room door left open. His wite thought the weather cool enough to shut it. She went to bed an hour after, but before the dispute was settled he pinched her. They both went to sleep, and the next day she went home to her father. She complained to the grand jury, and Smith was fined $6 and costs. Smith appealed to S. W. Hawley, Captain; W. F. Melbourne, First Lieutenaut; A. L. Symmes, Second Lieutenaut; J. G. J. Hooe, Third Lieutenaut; C. W. Pope, First threw her leg this way and hit a boil from which sergeant: T. H. Hyman, Second Sergeant: O. A. to save himself. Two lawyers on each side were engaged.

Hibler, of this county, who was robbed of $715 in Baltimore, says he lost his pocket book in getting out of the cars to take a look at Gen. Houston.—
Of course he does not think he got the worth of his money. Mr. Hibler went to work declaring he would make up the loss before he returned ome. He purchased seventy-five mules at the from works in Pennsylvania and brought them home with him.

These same mules were driven from this county

Pennsylvania, but since the iron works have een compelled to close mules can be purchased r less in Pennsylvania than in this county. Mr Hibler had previously purchased about eight hundred head in Pennsylvania. He sold the most f them to the Government at Leavenworth.

JAS. P. GAY'S TRIAL IN CLARKE.—The trial of Jas. P. Gay in the Clarke Circuit Court commen-ced on Tuesday last and on Saturday the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. Five lawyers appeared for the prosecution, and nine for the accused. A great crowd attended the trial and neartily hurrahed when the verdict was rendered. our readers will remember that about a year since Mrs. Jas. Price published a romance in the Ohio Farmer in which the real characters were Jas. P. Gay and wife. Shortly after a difficulty occurred between Gay and Jas. Washington, July 28.—The course to be pursued towards Paraguay is now determined, having been fully considered by the Administration. It is reliably ascertained that, from the isolated condition of Paraguay and the difficulty of access thereto, it is each block of the condition of the course the condition of the course the condition of the course the course the condition of the course the cess thereto, it is capable of making vigorous re-sistance to an outside force. Independently of a lew small vessels, mounting altogether an armament of six or eight guns, Lopez has three or four good steamers recently constructed in Eng-and, and at an eligible point on the river there is a fort mounting 100 guns of different calibre. Lo pez has a standing army of 12,000 men, and re-cently received from England a cargo of arms and ammunition, and has in his employ, as engineers and ordinance men, several French officers.

The Administration will send a fleet of six or seven vessels, including the Harriet Lane and the Fulton. The former will be the fleet which is the first the control of the former will be the fleet which is the first the former will be the fleet.

Fulton. The former will be the flag ship. Commander Page, who has been selected for the command, has proceeded to the North, in order to select and charter such additional steamers as may be adapted to the expedition.

Although it is not supposed it will be necessary fire a single gun, yet, in v ew of the defensive reparations of Paraguay, it is determined that ar force shall be sufficiently formidable to meet all possible contingencies. A commissioner has

The Cass-Yrissari Treaty.

New York, July 28.—The Times' Panama cor-espondent sends the substance of Secretary ass's letter to the President of Nicaragua on the refusal of the latter to sign the Cass Yrissari treaty. The Secretary says to President Martinez— you have insulted this government by withholdng your signature from the treaty. After plede ing your signature from the treaty. After pleaging yourself to Gen. Lamag that you sent it by special messenger, you afterwards assigned as a reason for not having sent it, that you had written an autograph letter to President Buchanan, asking him to submit certain modifications of it, which letter you never wrote. We demand as the only reparation you can make the return of the treaty.

reparation you can make, the return of the treat as ratified by the Assembly with regard to the vested rights of American citizens in Nicaragua. General Cass tells Martinez that his government would not submit to any arbitrary action of Nica-ragua, and that, as that country was devoid of au adequate tribunal, the Cabinet at Washington had no other recourse but to decide the matter fo nemselves and that therefore a emselves, and that therefore a proper nava ree had been dispatched to both sides of the

Final Sale of Lots

On Monday, 27th of September, 1858, Will commence the second and final Sale of Lo this growing and most interesting YOUNG CITY.

IN KENTUCKY CITY!

Is located on the east bank of the Mississippi river, twenty miles below the mouth of the Ohio river, at the first eligible highland, and in point of fact, being the mouth of the Ohio river; surrounded by a high, teatthy, and fertile country, rapidly growing in which and population, with a salubrious climate, generou, I beral and enlightened society. There wanted but Ali arther feature to make this the most commanding point on the "great Father of Waters"—this want was an uninterrupted and general outlet to the interior so as to accommission. general outlet to the interior, so as to accommodate the interchange of commodities. That want is now full met by the established system of which has fixed Kentucky City as the center work of railroads stretching out and affording ork of ranfoads stretching out and anording connectors in all directions with the interior and with the cities nd lakes of the North and East, and ramifying through it the South and West. That the public may not be led off by suspicions that his is a mere city upon paper, we request you to en-uire—to come and see for yourselves. See the Map—Kentucky City is the northern term the Great Mobile and Ohio Railroad—460 miles l ee also our railroad connection by Union City long the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad via F and Clarksville to Nashville, 170 miles. Also, ben and along the Memphis and Ohio Road to Me about 160 miles. Also via Jackson, Tenn., Holly Spring Canton and Jackson, Miss., to New Orleans, 500 mile lso via Corinth, thence along the Memphis and Char on Railroad to Tuscumbia, Huntsville, Chattanoo noxville and the East, and with Atlanta and Savan Also by the Fulton and Texas Rai Rock, through to Arkansas and Texas to the Pa-ific Ocean.

Also, by the Iron Mountain Railroad to St. Louis, 150 niles. Also by the STEAM FERRY PACKETS plying to and fro with Cairo and the Illinois Central Railroad to Chicago and the whole northwest. Intelligent, enterprising and practical men who will come and see and investigate in person, will be con-vinced that the extraordinary commercial advantages vinced that the extraordinary commercial advantage and facilities of railroad and steamboat transportation possessed by Kentucky City secures to this point requires for manufacturing and commercial purposes, which must, of necessity, cause it speedily to become the great intermediate city between the NORTH and the SOUTH, at which the productions and manufactures of each secn will be concentrated for sale, or to be exchanged for those of the other.

The Hon. Post-Master General, in a recent report, says: "No man can look at the map of this country without his eye finally resting on the mouth of the other as the center of population and commerce of the United States" The sale is to be made without reserve and in good faith, and there will always be a reliable gentleman on dful information, and answer all written or oral in-rogatories. Then let no one permit himself to be led ff by rumor, when the facts are so accessible to all.
Sale to commence Monday, September 27th,

MARTHA PUTNAM, Jewell, St Louis. UAKER CITY, McDaniel, Nash: TIME, Johnson, Flerence. CHATTANOOGA, Harmonson, Tennessee river, TELEGRAPH NO. 8. Hildreth, Cincinnati. CS10TO, Ballard, Henderson.

THE RIVER was falling but very little if any yesterday, with four feet two or three inches water in the canal in the evening by the mark. This would enable boats drawing four feet water to work through the canal without trouble. the falls there were scant 30 inches water, the river having fallen but about an inch in the previous 24 hours. The weather continues clear, and it was very warm last evening.

The Endeavor, for Wheeling yesterday, received one thousand barrels of mess pork as a portion of her cargo for the East. FOR THE EAST-FARE REDUCED .- The renowned Telegraph No. 3 is the passenger packet for Cin-cinnati and the East at noon to-day. She is in charge of Capt. Hildreth, a clever boatman, who will ticket passengers through to New York in Capt. H. H. Buchanan, the agent of the old and reliable mail line, informs us that the fare to New York via the mailboats, has been reduced to $19.50. This is a great desideratum, and of course all the travelers Eastward will go by the way of the mailboats.

FOR NEW ORLEANS .- The swift and comfortable packet E. H. Fairchild takes her departure to bew Orleans this evening, at 5 o'clock, from Port-land. She is a very light, staunch boat, in charge of Capt. Faucett, assisted in the office by J. F. Ley-den, the most attentive and correct clerk on the river, and passengers will find her a safe and desirable as well as swift boat.

The fast steamer Duke, Capt. Sam. Applearrived from New Orleans evening before last. We believe that Capt. Applegate designs building a new boat.

Thanks to Dan Claxon, clerk of the Emma from Carrollton, for a manifest. The splendid light draught passenger packet John Gault having been thoroughly overhauled and refitted for the low water campaign, is adver-tised for Cairo and Memphis next Wednesday. The fish—good game fish, pan fish, are beginning to "bite" in the vicinity of the falls, and numerous parties have been out in skiffs, and along shore with hook and line, trying to take 'em in. The best hand we know of to fix up poles, tackle, nets, &c., is Joe Rabbeth, at the Telegraph

THE MILTON FERRY .- We hear of a great many complaints of the little old ferry that plies between Milton, Ky., and Madison Ia. It is repre sented as a rickety concern, and the proprietor with due regard for the safety of his boat and fare, never runs whenever the river is rough or the wind a little high. By these delays the travel by that ferry is very much delayed. SALE OF THE WRECK OF THE R. J. LOCKWOOD

It will be seen by the advertisement in another column that the wreck of the new steamer, built by Capt. Lamb, which had been burnt at New Albany, is offered for sale this morning. The sald takes place this morning. The body of Harvey B. Nichols, one of the victims of the Pennsylvania disaster, was recently found 550 miles below the scene of the disaster. The Mississippi at St. Louis was slowly falling Tuesday having attained Tuesday, having attained its highest DELAYS OF THE MOB LINE .- The huge tub City of Memphis has been advertised at St. Louis for a week or more, to leave that port on Sunday last a week or more, to leave that port on Sunday last.

She didn't go on that day, or the next, and now she is advertised to go on Wednesday, and will probably get off some time during the week.

Now ain't the mob line a great concern for regularity and punctuality? If the passengers from the East were ticketed through on the mob line via Cairo and the City of Memphis to go on Sunday lest won't then have a pice time to wait? day last, won't they have a nice time to wait?

The Fanny Bullitt, from New Orleans passed Memphis early yesterday morning. She is due here Saturday, and returns to New Orleans PORT OF LOUISVILLE.

COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY COURIER, Wednesday Evening, July 28, 1858. There has been some activity in the market this week provisions, but an advance in prices suddenly checked transactions. By the assessment of hogs six months old, in all the counties of the State but twenty-six, it appears that there is a falling off of over 100,000, as compared with the previous year, but an increase of a few thousand over the preceding year. In groceries, produce and grain, there is a steady advance, owing chiefly to the lightness of the stocks, with very meagre supplies. But very little new wheat has been sent to market, though prices have improved. The crop is estimated a short ne, though there is yet in the country a large supply of old wheat. The foreign advices continue favorable for e crops, and we notice a slight advance in the price of our home products. Our corn crop, though very backward, gives promise of being an unusual prolific or

The weather has been clear, warm and very sultry for the past few days, though we had abundant rains last week, which were an advantage to the crops. The river has been falling steadily all the week, having reached a low stage once more, and still falling, with every prospect of low water, and high freights for awhile.

Our quotations are altogether the wholesale prices for articles, which, on time orders, or retail sales to the country, command an advance. ALCOHOL .- Prices firm at 44c, and 52c for 76 and COAL OIL LAMPS! With New and Improved Burners—No Patent, and very cheap!

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL. HAVE received the agency for a new and much improved Coal Oil Lamp, which, from its great simplicity and economy, bids fair to supercede all others. A full, clear light can be produced at a cost of less than ½ cent an hour, which is about one-third the cost of lard oil and candles. The wick is regulated with a screw, by which a very large flame or the smallest glimmer of light is produced at pleasure. I have various choice patterns, from plain to fine parlor Lamps, which are sold at much less price than any patent. For $1.25 I can sell a good strong Lamp that will burn three hours per night for a week without refilling, and not consume over 10 cents worth of oil. I have also separate Burners which can be fitted to Oil or Fluid Lamps of any kind. Call and see them at
